

SPECIAL OPERATIONS ADVENTURE RACE 2011

All proceeds from the Special Operations Adventure Race benefit the Special Operations Warrior Foundation (SOWF). SOWF provides college scholarship grants, based on need, along with financial aid and educational counseling to the children of Special Operations personnel who were killed in an operational mission or training accident.

The results of the Race in Rank Order, Team Name, Racer(s) name, home town and race time in hours: minutes: seconds after adjustments for bonuses and penalties. Forty-nine individuals began and thirty-nine finished the race. The race was called off early because of lightning on Lake Sequoyah and the rappelling site. Times longer than twelve hours are due to penalties in the race's rules.
